

Chemicals Found in Both Wood Smoke and Tobacco Smoke

Indicates a hazardous chemical for which the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR) has prepared a toxicological profile.

Indicates a chemical classified as a carcinogen (cancer causing) by the United States Government.

Indicates a chemical that is one of the Top 20 hazardous substances listed on the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA)

Carbon Monoxide

Formaldehyde

Acrolein

Acetaldehyde

Benzene

Toluene

Acetic Acid

Formic Acid

Nitrogen Oxides

Napthalene

Substituted Napthalenes

Phenol

Catechol

Fluorene

Phenanthrene

Anthracene

Fluoranthene

Pyrene

Benzo(a)anthracene

Chrysene

Benzofluoranthenes

Benzo(a)pyrene

Indeno(1,2,3-cd)pyrene

Dibenzo(a,h)pyrene

Dibenz(a,h)anthracene

Chromium

Nickel

Lead

For more information visit: www.cleanaircanberra.com